

Policy development – disposition of property

Executive Secretary Limitations Policy: disposition of property

Property will be held by the Conference solely for office location purposes.

Accordingly, the Executive Secretary shall:

1. inform the Conference Executive of property which has been received by the Conference in any form;
2. dispose of property in a timely manner to the benefit to the Conference and its Presbyteries.

